- Validation meeting of the evaluation report on the holistic approach "My School, My Home

As part of its holistic approach program called "My School, My Home" implemented by the Shekinah Center Burundi, a validation meeting was held on April 20, 2024 in Bujumbura at Kazoz'art with the participation of partners, friends of the Shekinah Center, and consulting experts who contributed to the drafting of the evaluation documents. During this meeting, the Shekinah Center Burundi marked an important milestone with the validation of its program, which promotes quality education in rural areas, with a focus on girls' education (SDG4 and SDG5), nutritional health and well-being (SDG2 and SDG3), access to clean water (SDG6), and economic empowerment (SDG1). The participants unanimously welcomed the positive impact of the program on the lives of children and rural communities.

- Shekinah Center Foundation - Canada

On June 11, 2024, the official launch of the Shekinah Center Foundation Canada took place in Ottawa, in the presence of its founder, Mrs. Micheline Barandereka, representatives of the Canadian government, including the Honorable and Member of Parliament Chandra Arya. The purpose of the foundation is to facilitate the engagement of Canadian partners to support the community development activities of the Shekinah Center in Burundi. On this occasion, Mrs. Micheline Barandereka, the founder of the Shekinah Center in Burundi, shared her inspiring story about the transformation of lives within the rural community of Mwaro, in Rusaka. At the heart of the Shekinah Center's mission is the innovative program "My School, My Home." This holistic approach transcends formal education by providing a stimulating environment that promotes the overall development of students, their families, and the community.
